The Athena Quantitative Program consists of two main systematic option strategies: calendar spreads and broken wing butterflies.

The calendar spreads utilize long-term spreads (>150 days) addition, monetize the passage of time. These spreads are established by simultaneously entering a long and short position on the same underlying asset at the same strike price but with different delivery months.

The broken wing butterflies are long butterfly spreads with long strikes that are not equidistant from the short strike. These are established to collect both the volatility risk premium and the passage of time.

In addition, Athena Quantitative systematically acquires tail risks protection through the purchase of OTM Put options to protect the portfolio and potentially benefit from extreme volatility moves.

Main Systematic Options Strategies

Athena Main Features

Delta Neutral, Theta Positive, Vega Negative

The trading style for both strategies is 'delta neutral' and therefore non-directional at the time of their opening. The core of the strategy is to monetize the options' Time Decay (Theta) and the Implied Volatility Risk Premium.

No Naked Position

The strategy does not use naked options; on the contrary, the portfolio provides for a greater quantity of options bought than sold.

Complementary volatility exposure

The strategy has an opposite exposure to volatility to minimize the impact of Vega on the portfolio during adverse market movements. Some proprietary filters also provide for the inhibition of the Broken-Wing Butterfly strategy in the presence of excessive market volatility.

Use of Futures

- Hedging: Futures might be implemented for hedging purposes against options positions.
- Speculation: Low to mid-frequency systematic strategies might be deployed to harvest additional alpha.

Source of Alpha & Risk Management

Source of Alpha

Equity index options are often bought with the objective of hedging institutional equity portfolios.

The implied volatility of option instruments is often overestimated versus the realised one. This aspect, together with the asymmetric risk/reward characteristic and the constant time-decay factor of option pricing, are the foundation of Athena's edge. The strategy benefits from collecting time-value and volatility-premiums paid by option buyers.

The combination of options assembled to build the strategies (Structure, Expirations, Strikes) in conjunction with robust risk management are the core of a successful option strategy that maximizes risk adjusted returns, delivering consistent performance while effectively containing tail-risk events.

Risk Management

Three layers of risk mitigation:

Athena Quantitative employs a robust risk management framework comprising of three independent layers:

- 1) Black Swan Hedge: To shield against extreme events, Athena's strategy is systematically acquiring long out-of-the-money put options to become Vega positive (Long Vol.) during catastrophic events.
- 2) Systematic Stop Mechanisms: Each open trade structure has an embedded stop-loss mechanism.
- 3) Dynamic Allocation with Proprietary Market Regime Filters: The strategy adapts dynamically through proprietary market regime filters, ensuring it remains well-suited to the prevailing market conditions.

In addition, ongoing testing by Athena's team is demonstrating promising results of increasing the risk adjusted performance, adopting short-term algorithms to hedge the portfolio through the purchase of VIX Futures during sudden market crashes.

Typhon Introduction

Typhon Capital Management is a multi-strategy hedge fund specializing in tactical trading strategies designed to be uncorrelated to traditional markets under most market conditions and have strong negative correlation during periods of stress. Typhon dedicates itself to developing unique strategies that are truly differentiated and perform when almost everything else on earth fails. Typhon uses our unique, modular strategies as building blocks to design bespoke products to meet each investor's individual needs.

Typhon has a wide range of portfolio managers running differentiated strategies including global macro, hedged equity long-short, cross-exchange arbitrage, commodity roll arbitrage, relative value, market structure arbitrage, medium-frequency quant, low frequency quant, and systematic market structure.

Typhon also creates custom solutions with modular access to our individual managers in single-manager funds, managed accounts, or in custom portfolios on our Argos Alternative Funds US and Cayman platforms or on investment bank swap platforms. We also offer the ability for non-US investors to invest via exchange traded note wrappers into our funds issued by Bank of New York.

Name: Ty·phon

Pronunciation: \ 'tī- ,fän \

Etymology: Latin, from Greek Typhōn

n: (Greek mythology) a monster with a hundred heads and one of the whirlwinds; son of Typhoneus and Echidna; father of Cerberus and the Chimera and the Sphinx.

n: a leading multi-strategy hedge fund founded in 2008 to be an incubator of emerging managers supported by institutional infrastructure to enable clients to create custom portfolios with a single operational due diligence. Typhon has continually improved upon that platform to facilitate fully in-house multi-strategy solutions.

Typhon Culture

Typhon has a unique culture that starts with a deep level of service to investors

Many firms talk about how honest or devoted to their clients they are, but Typhon has gone above and beyond to empirically demonstrate that.

Our CEO, James Koutoulas, co-founded the Commodity Customer Coalition representing 38,000 victims of the MF Global bankruptcy, leading customers to a 100% recovery of $6.7 billion in assets after 3,000 hours of completely pro bono service. He served on the Board of Directors and Executive Committee for of the National Futures Association

Some of Typhon's top investment team talent had amassed millions in balances (from a few thousand dollars of principal) at MF Global, which Mr. Koutoulas, assisted by Ms. Rydbeck on our operations team, recovered in full. That has bred a family-like culture with loyalty and an esprit de corps unlike any other firm. Typhon is wholly-owned by current and former staff. Typhon offers every portfolio manager the opportunity to become an equity partner, and every member of the operations, risk, and business development teams the ability to earn convertible equity in the GP. This gives everyone at Typhon a share in the firm's growth and success and reinforces our culture of teamwork.

Typhon's unique structure where each portfolio management group runs modular investment vehicles for their own strategy that can also be combined into multi-strategy vehicles also allows Typhon to offer netted fee structures that benefit investors along with portfolio managers (since they act as a diversifier to their standalone books).

From a hiring perspective, Typhon has a deep commitment both to and from its portfolio managers. Most portfolio managers are partners in Typhon's GPs and have long-term commitments to the firm. Typhon also focuses its hiring on portfolio managers with proven track records of success managing their own capital. Those who have learned disciplined risk management by feeding their families off strategies that have had to be consistent.

Moreover, Typhon seeks portfolio managers that are simultaneously either sector specialists or capacity-constrained quants, that benefit greatly from having access to institutional infrastructure that their strategies would not have the capacity to support on a standalone basis. And from a psychological standpoint, Typhon hires portfolio managers that are well-rounded human beings, with diverse interests that breed creativity and unique ways of thinking about the market, rather than those dependent on conventional group think driven informational flow. This has been instrumental in Typhon massively outperforming in every stress period since our 2008 founding.

Typhon Distinction

Risk Management

Independence The Risk Committee is independent of each of our trading groups. We protect our investors by monitoring risk at the manager, portfolio, and firm level.

Proprietary Tools Typhon has developed a suite of proprietary tools that are customized for each strategy.

Pre-established Risk Limits The Risk Committee establishes risk guidelines for each manager before it starts trading on our platform.

Regular Review of all Strategies All strategies are reviewed on a regular basis, not just when there are issues.

Value-Additive Feedback The Risk Committee is constantly monitoring trading positions and proactively collaborates with our managers to help them optimize trade construction around their investment theses.

Risk Reporting Risk analytics and daily PNLs are available to investors as part of our commitment to transparency.

Per-Manager Constraints Each manager is limited to specific markets, exchanges, and instruments with product and maximum overall exposure limits.

Per-Trade Risk Parameterization Each manager maintains profit objectives, reduction targets, and stop-losses for every trade.

Concentration Risk Strategies generally trade a small number of markets, providing a naturally balanced portfolio. Typhon's risk team may actively hedge the overall portfolio in cases where a concentration arises.

Liquidity Risk A pre-emptive approach to limiting drawdowns by tailoring circuit breakers to reduce risk at the individual manager level. Typhon's independent risk committee performing real-time risk monitoring, Typhon's risk committee can hedge positions across the overall portfolio.

No Platform Fees

Typhon works with its managers, not in addition to its managers. Our investors do not incur any additional fees for allocating to Typhon managers.

Manager Coverage

Typhon is plugged in to the universe of emerging traders and identifies distinctive specialists with defined edges

Operational Support

Typhon provides its managers with legal, compliance, accounting, and administrative support. This tempers some of the largest issues associated with emerging traders.

Typhon has a rigorous due diligence process to cull the universe of emerging managers before bringing them into Typhon.

Investor Relations

Typhon has well-established relationships with investors allocating to emerging and tactical traders.
